Little Eagles Paid Preschool Need to Knows

- Eligible students must turn 4 years old on or before AUGUST 1st, 2024. Registration applications are available on the school website and Jac-Cen-Del Elementary Office.
- Kindergarten readiness is the primary goal of the preschool program, which focuses on language and literacy activities as well as early math skills. There is a strong emphasis on social, emotional, and motor skill development.
- Bus transportation will be available to students in the JCD School Corporation boundaries. Parents are responsible for the transportation of students outside the district.
- There is a tuition fee for this program. Students will pay a maximum of $100 dollars per week. This amount is a flat rate, you will still be charged if your child does not attend a day. If there are not five days in the school week, the amount will be prorated.
- Students who are enrolled in the paid preschool program will have access to the latch key program for a fee of seven dollars per day.
- Students must be toilet trained to attend the preschool program.
- Students must have current immunizations and a birth certificate on file to attend the preschool program.
- Students are eligible to receive all services provided through JCD School Corporation in which he/she qualifies for, including but not limited to: free/reduced breakfast and lunch, special area classes (music, gym, art, and library), etc.
- Breakfast and lunch are available to the students at the regular costs. Breakfast and lunch are not included in the tuition fees.
- If you are interested in enrolling your child, please complete the enrollment packet along with a $50 dollar deposit to complete registration. The deposit is non-refundable.
